

FREE WORKSHOPS

The LMCC offers FREE television workshops to residents who live in one of our seventeen member cities and Mound.

Basic Television Production

If you have ever wanted to make your own television show or just wanted to learn more about what goes on in a television studio, then our Basic Television Production class is for you! The class is a prerequisite for all other classes offered at the LMCC.

Digital Production

The Digital Production class offers you the opportunity to learn cutting edge editing in a non-linear format.

Van Production

Learn to produce shows using our production van.

If you are interested in producing television programs or would like to volunteer, contact the LMCC at 952.471.7125 for details or stop in at 4071 Sunset Drive in Spring Park.
